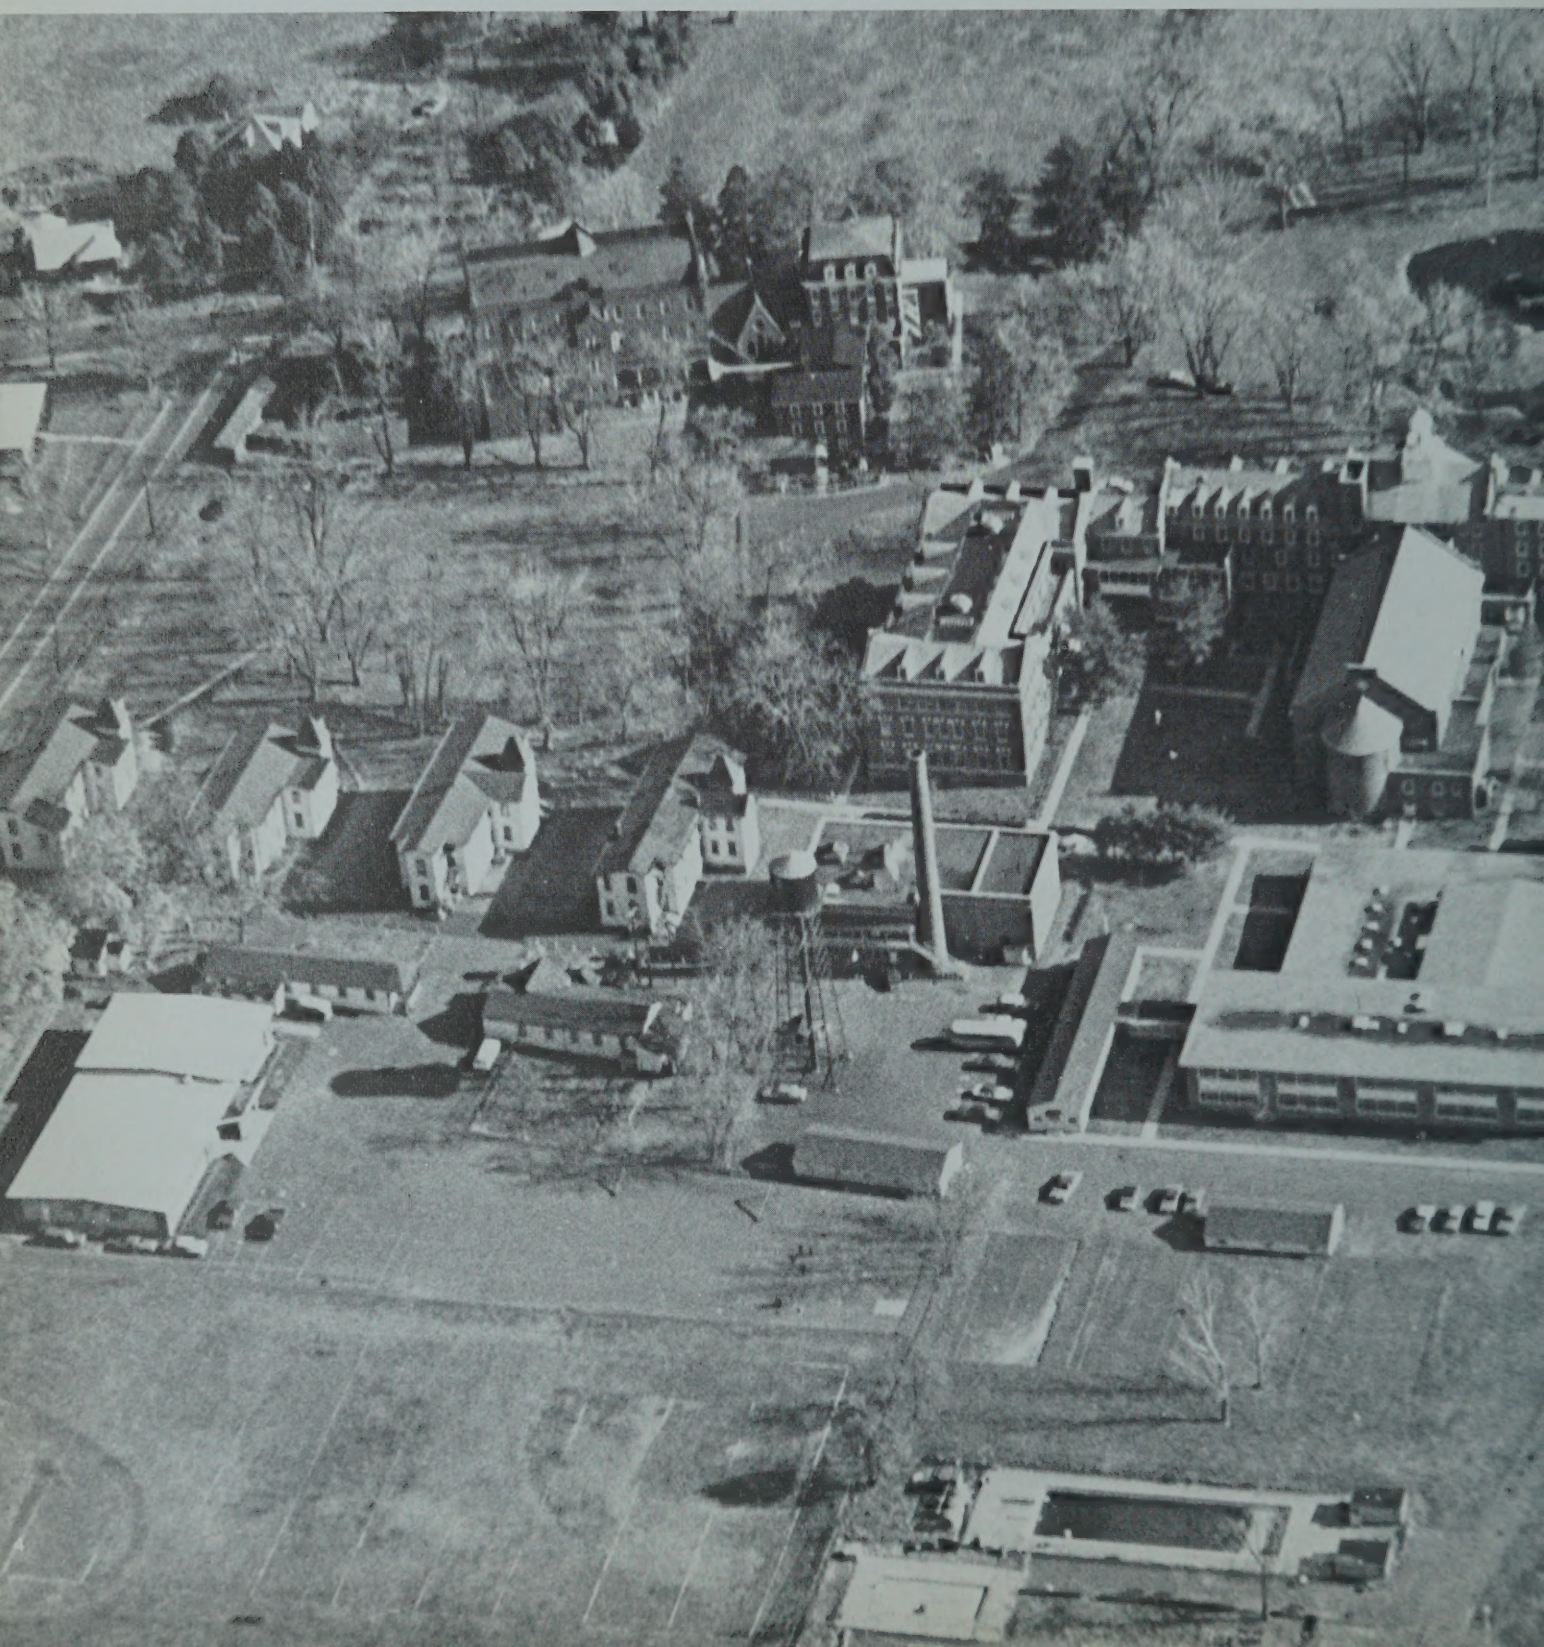
EPITHALAMIUM
Judson Jerome

This book was written as fiction; but is based on fact. The things we write about have, in essence, happened. Our aim is not to embarrass individuals, but to stimulate thought — and, we hope, action.



This is a picture of what people consider Dominican College to be. However, this is not what we, the students, think of it! True, Dominican has been growing in size at a rapid rate, but it does not encompass the entire Rockland community, nor is the county wrapped up in Dominican College. Rather, we think of D.C. as having reached its adolescence and is ever-growing: within you and without you. So as we lift our sleepy eyes to face the rising sun and the dawning of Dominican, the Aubade presents to you . . .

. . . The Dominican College

Therefore, we dedicate the first edition of Aubade

Endowed with the rather formal name — Aubade — we, in tracing the school year 1970-71, have come up with a rather informal yearbook. We have caught some of the less elusive moments of the year and we hope that in your personal reflections you will fill in and color these pages with your own experiences.

We Know!!!

to YOU — Dominican College!!!

If we can prove to be instrumental in triggering some good or bad, happy or sad memories, then we will feel that long, all-night yearbook meetings and the unavoidable tensions of putting this together will have been worth it.

N.B. To those of you who haven't caught on yet,

"Only that day dawns

to which we are awake."

How many years have I known you but never known you?

And can I tell of the times I passed you by
only to be by myself
and in the same breath tell you
of my loneliness?
can I make up for those times
by recalling the times
we did laugh and cry
together?

How can I leave you without saying.... it was nice to know you

but at the same time voice my regret that I didn't know you better.

Even in the absence of our dearly beloved President, Mary Dean, you can be sure that she was not forgotten. Daily her presence hung over the student body. Her all-seeing, all-knowing and uncanny powers were always felt. Her duties and chores were handled extraordinarily well by her three accomplices Jennifer, Donna and Frank.

On Mary's return from the land of appendix, hospitals and many highfalutin pills, things once again became normal or abnormal (depending on how you take Mary). Of course, her picture will never take the place of the real Mary Dean. Be careful Frank! You never know what she will do next.

The artist paints what he feels in relation to what he sees. Thus we might say he deceives. The photographer has but what is there to work with in his art, but what of his tools? Light and lense are his language and those of us here who chose to delve into this discipline have created a society of the camera. What do we call this society? The Photography Club.

The janitor may mourn for the broom closet by Smith Hall, but his loss is our gain, a dark room. Now we go from negative to print in black and white; may haps some day to color we might.

This year 1970-1971 saw the start of the Palisades Collegiate Athletics Conference. The President of the Conference for this year is Robert Macken, D.C. coach. The member colleges are: Dominican College, Edward Williams, Englewood Cliffs, Luther, Mercy, and St. Thomas Aquinas. At the end of the basketball season, D.C. emerged victorious with 9 wins and 1 loss. A tremendous trophy is now in the proud possession of D.C. This trophy will rotate each year to the winner of the conference unless one team wins for 3 years in a row, then the trophy will be retained by that team.

Congratulations to Mr. Macken and all the guys on the team.

We Were Talking...

We Were Talking

about the space between us all

And The People . . .

Who hide them

behind

a

wall

of

selves

illusion

And never

glimpse

the truth . . .

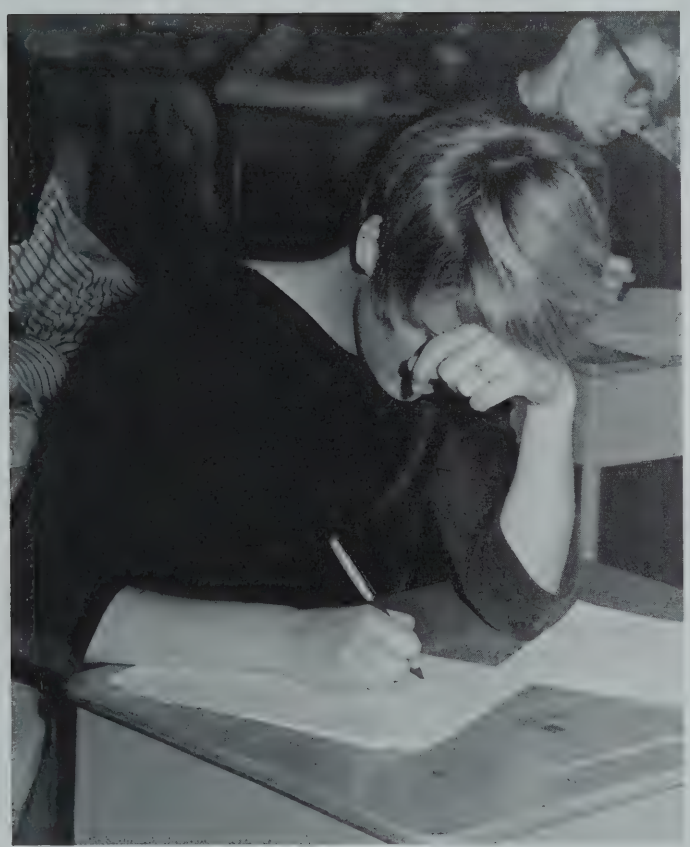
. . . it's far too late . . .



when they pass away

We Were Talking

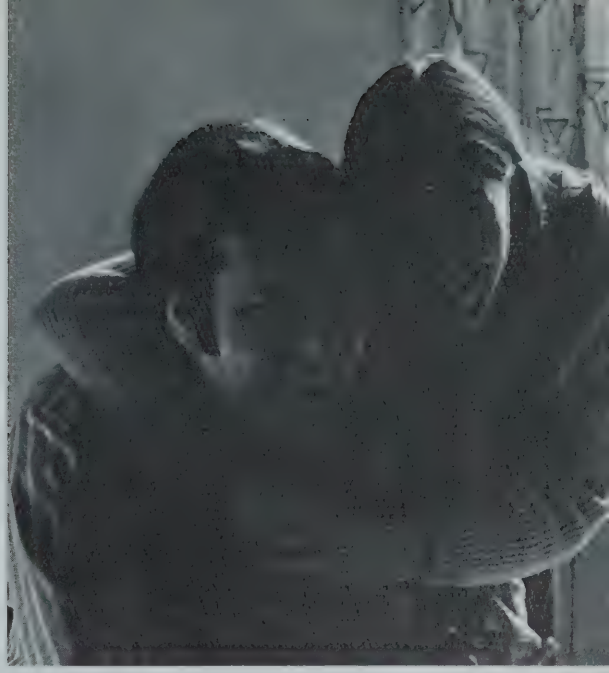
about

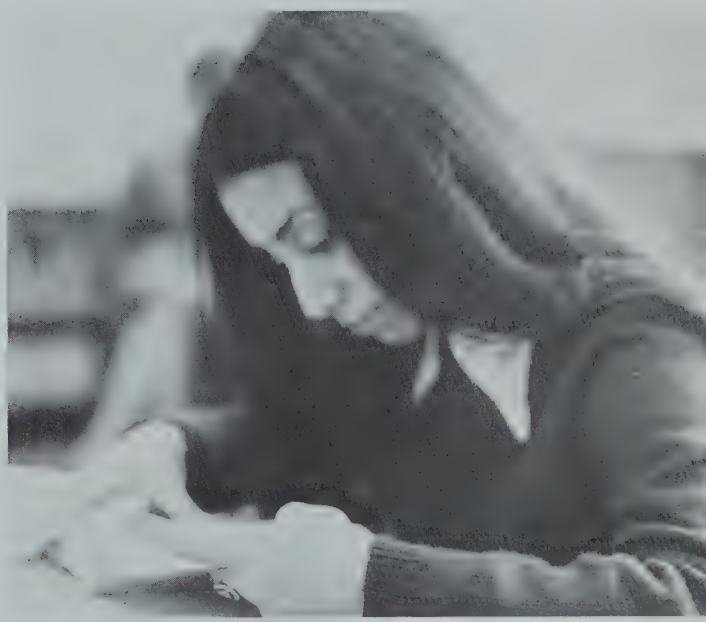
the

love

we

all . . .



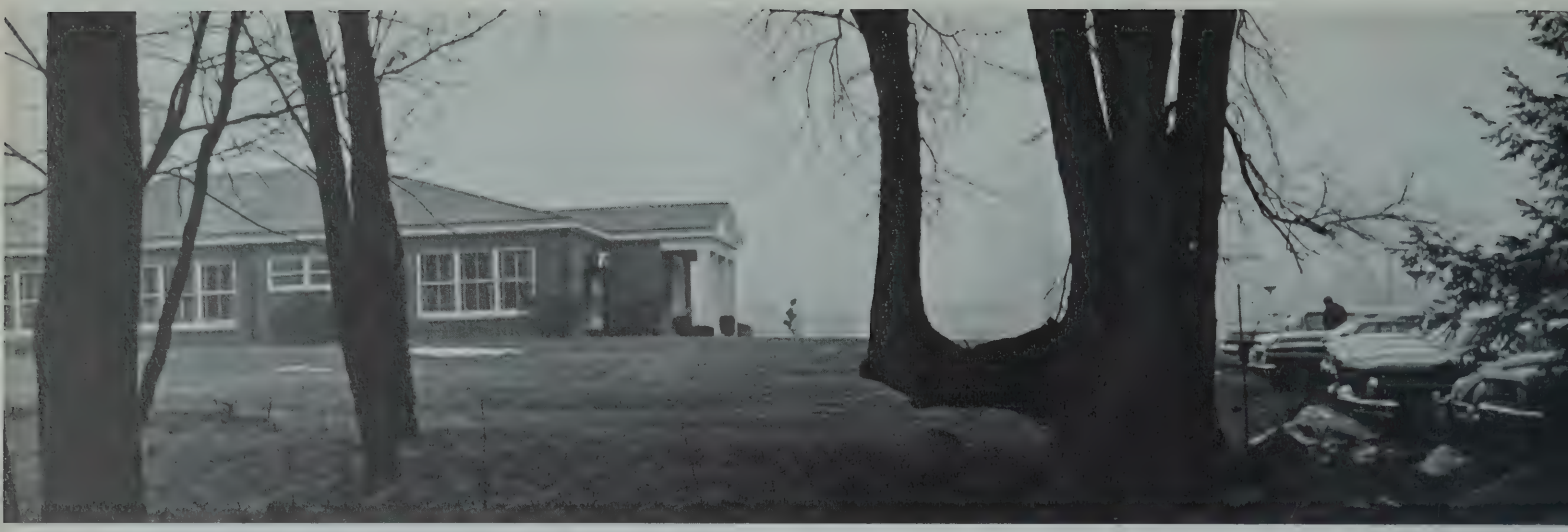


could share . . .

when

we

find it . . .



Try our best to hold it there
Try our best to hold it there
with our love . . .
with our love . . .

with our love . . .

. . . we could

save

the world

Try to realize

it's all within yourself

No one

can

make

you

change . . .

and to see you're

only very small . . .

And life goes on

within you

and

without you.

We Were Talking

about

the

love

that's

gone

so

cold

And the people

who

the

and

lose

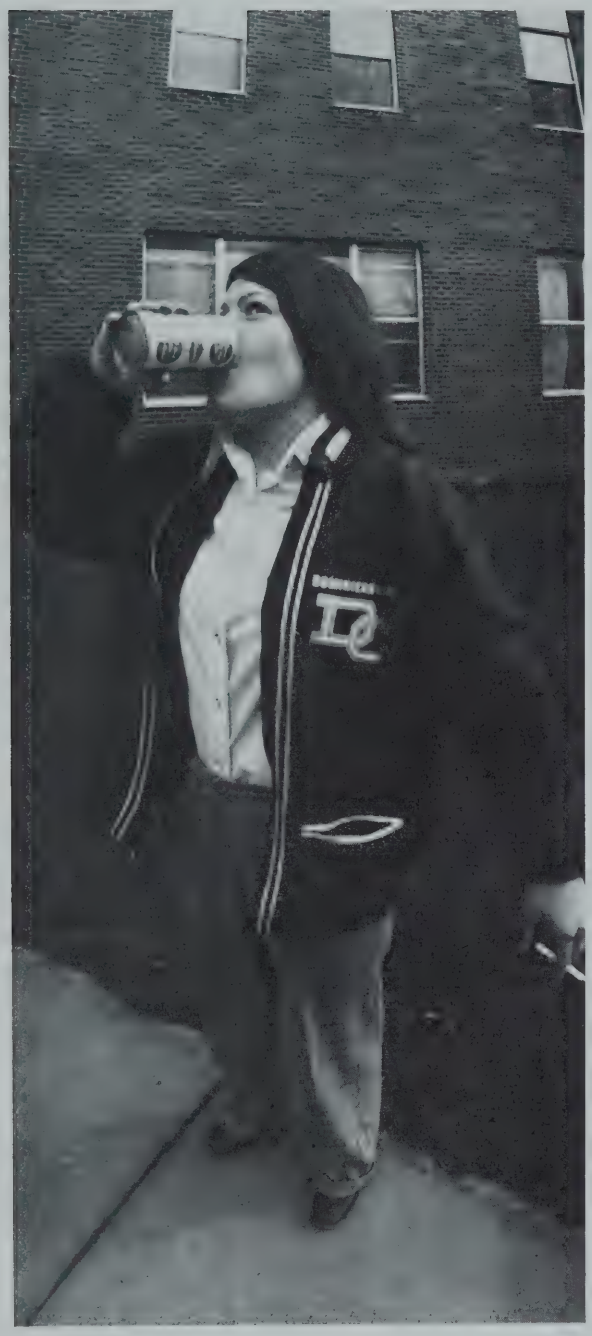
their

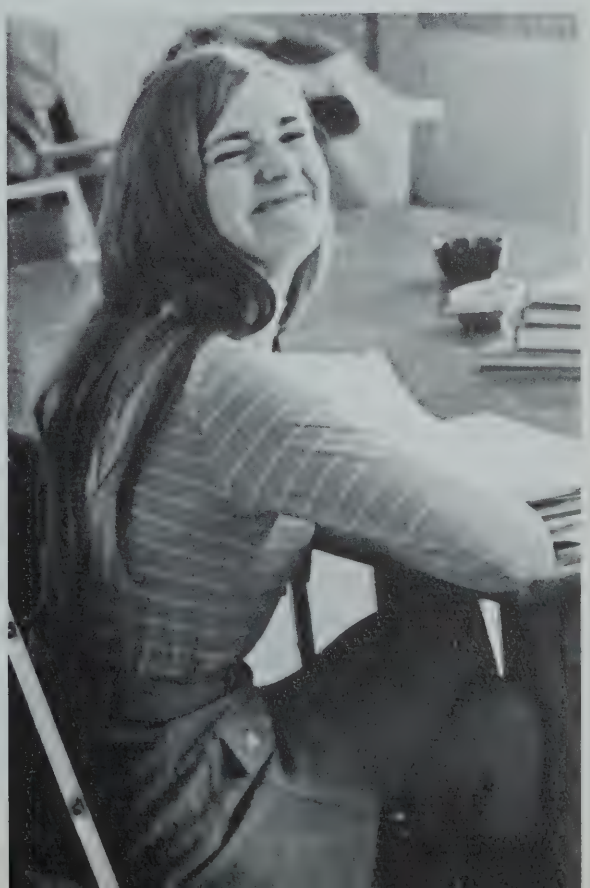
soul

They don't know

They can't see

Are you





one of them?

When
you've yourself . . .

you
may

peace
of

is waiting
there

And . . .

the time will come

when you see we're all
